Equity and diversity are part of every BC community. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person. If you identify with any historically disadvantaged group, please feel free to identify here at your discretion:

Activity

SHORT ANSWER QUESTIONS

Please provide short answers (1000 character limit) to the following questions:

- How have you prepared yourself for Midwifery study? Please provide a brief description of activities that would support your future Midwifery practice.
- A connection to community is an essential component to the practice of Midwifery. Describe your community, how you came to position yourself within it, and your current role. How will your education and practice in Midwifery enhance health improvement opportunities for those within your community base?

PERSONAL STATEMENT

Compose a concise, well organized essay that encompasses information relative to the questions listed below, in the order listed.

The essay must be between 3,000 and 4,500 characters. This is comparable to 1 ½ to 2 pages that are single spaced using a 12 point font, with an extra line between paragraphs. The character includes spaces, tabs, and lines between paragraphs.

Introduce yourself to the committee and answer the following statements:

- Describe the development of your interest in a career in midwifery. Why have you chosen this degree rather than a degree in another field?
- Provide information on life experiences, cross-cultural interactions, areas of expertise, or knowledge, which may contribute to your success in midwifery education and practice
- Describe your short term and long term professional goals.
